

— Harmony —

Vibrations of love and acceptance are emanation from you and around you at this time. You are seeking peace and simplicity at this juncture and offer the same to everyone about you. Notice all the beauty around you. Open your heart, sharing affirmations, affection, and love with those you care about. Your innate ability to seek harmony and to create it where it is lacking makes you a magnet to others. Gentleness, peace, love, and beauty are your tools as you are living your true purpose. At this time, seek to sustain tranquility, simplicity, and harmony in your journey.
